STATINTL

Thank you for the additional information sent with your letter of 20 November.

At present the situation remains much as when discussed with you. We are trying to determine whether certain problems can be handled better by addition to the Legal Staff or by other offices.

The circumstances being this uncertain, I would not wait upon word from us in considering other offers as it may be some time before the problem is decided. Even after that, as you mentioned, would be the period for the security check.

Please let us know, however, if you do make any changes and I will let you know immediately when our problem is resolved one way or another.

Very truly yours,
